Dear KidsCo Families,

Winter has arrived, but the promise of spring is just on the horizon. As we anticipate the warmer days ahead, don't forget to bundle up with gloves, hats, and coats when sending your children to KidsCo each morning. Please note that on Feb. 19, both MCPS and KidsCo will be closed in observance of President's Day. Now is the ideal time to start planning your summer activities! Registration for KidsCo Summer Camps is now open, offering weekly options to accommodate families with summer travel plans. For a detailed summer brochure, travel schedules, or additional information, visit www.KidsCoOnline.com/camp2024.

BOOKS OF THE MONTH

Audience: K-2

Author: Travis Jonker

Description: It's snowing outside! Liam rushes out into the squall, determined to catch one perfect snowflake. He tries any number of tricks to complete his mission, but each time he is thwarted. Until, in a final leap of faith, he catches that one flake . . . in a way he never expected. And the snowflake itself is pretty unexpected too. This book is a hilarious and satisfying story all about outdoor play and the natural world's stunning surprises.

Audience: 3-5

Author: Stacy McAnulty

Description: Lucy Callahan was struck by lightning. She doesn't remember it, but it changed her life forever. The zap gave her genius-level math skills, and ever since, Lucy has been homeschooled. Now, at 12 years old, she's technically ready for college. Except, she must pass one more test, middle school!
