Welcome back! Summer is here and I'm so excited! Many years of Teens On-the-Run have taught me that the memories we make during the summer stay with us forever. My favorite trip is any of the water trips because I'm such a lover of all things summer! Catch me in wave pool!

Isabella is thrilled to return for another year with KidsCo and to collaborate with other fantastic counselors. This marks her third year as a camp counselor, and she's eager for a summer filled with excitement! For Isabella, camp is about forging friendships, enjoying activities, and exploring new interests. Her aim is to ensure every camper has a memorable and enjoyable summer experience.
